THE 1 MILLION
(OFFSHORE YACHTS)

THE 1 MILLION
(OFFSHORE YACHTS)

GLOBAL POPULATION: 1 MILLION.

The “No-Monaco Rule” is in full effect: Zero visible maritime safety gear. No railings. No life vests. The elite are so blinded by hubris they forget they live on the ocean.

THE 30 BILLION
(MAINLAND SLUMS)

POPULATION CRITICAL
RESOURCE DEPLETION 99%

RIOT PROTOCOL ENGAGED
OTS EXTRACTORS DEPLOYED

THE 30 BILLION
(MAINLAND SLUMS)

GLOBAL POPULATION: 30 BILLION.

Entombed in permanent industrial decay. Surviving entirely on 100-Yuano synthetically processed seaweed meals.

THE 14,000-TO-1 GAP

1 GOLD G-BUCK = 14,000 POLYMER YUANOS

THE PRICE OF COMFORT

A single 3 G-Buck breakfast on an elite island represents exactly eight years of grueling mainland labor (42,000 Yuanos).

NotebookLM

The Illusion

Boutique on-demand organ replacement masquerading as a sanitized, high-end resort service.

The Reality

Daylight kidnappings by armored biological harvesting units to sustain the elite's youth. This normalized cruelty fuels our rebellion.

NotebookLM

THE INFILTRATORS

Two desperate mainlanders seeking the volatile raw plutonium required to ignite a systemic collapse.

THE MOTIVATION

They are rallying the slums using a whispered rumor of “Alpha Sigma”—a highly classified, root-level firmware exploit in the UU systems that promises total immunity and a ticket off the mainland.

TACTICAL EXTRACTION ROSTER

Mainland Aesthetic

JAX:
Plutonium Mine Laborer
(Deep-mine infiltation)

MEI:
Submarine Engineer
(Technical Architect)

KAEL:
SST Logistics
(Maritime weaknesses)

ELENA, SIA, MILLER:
Survivors of OTS harvesting, Sector 7 dungeons, and slum stagnation.

THE MACGUFFIN: An ancient Chinese nuclear submarine—the only weapon blind to yacht subsurface sensors.

THE HEIST (SEQUENCE 6: THE OPEN-PIT)

THE ASSET: VOLATILE RAW PLUTONIUM CONTAINER.

THE METHOD: HIGH-STAKES STEALTH OVER TRADITIONAL GUNPLAY. MULTI-STORY VEHICLES DWARF THE HUMAN ELEMENT. THE TENSION COMES FROM STAYING HIDDEN IN THE GREASE AND GEARS OF THE MACHINE, ESCAPING THROUGH THE NARROW, DEBRIS-STREWN SLUM CORRIDORS.

The ‘Alpha Sigma’ Double-Cross

The Sting: The warehouse meet-up is a tactical kill-zone.

The Code: Jake and Sarah shout, “Code 7! Code 7!”

The Liquidation: The authorities ignore the couple entirely. Jake and Sarah aren’t rebels—they are low-level packaging laborers who set up the entire operation just to buy a ‘Golden Ticket’ off the mainlan

NotebookLM

The Petty Crime

Three months prior, Jake and Sarah stole a dozen natural apples—a luxury reserved strictly for the 1 million.

The Punishment

Incarceration in subterranean medieval conditions, stripped of all modern electricity and sanitation. A decade-long sentence forcing the ultimate betrayal.

Evidence File

THE WARNING:
"Don't take their offer."

THE ASSET:
A handwritten scrap of paper containing the true "Alpha Sigma" commands.

THE LORE:
Jake thinks it's a firmware hack for VIP status. In reality, it is a zero-day Shanghai firmware override, hardcoded by enslaved laborers centuries ago.

SEQUENCE 10: THE DECEPTIVE REWARD

THE VISUAL SHIFT: Present Day. Ultra-bright, sun-drenched, medical-grade minimalism.

The Spoils:
Enjoying a 3 G-Buck Breakfast while classical music plays.

The Horror:
The G-ID terminal UI flashes: “GUEST STATUS: 30 DAYS REMAINING.”

The Realization:
They aren’t citizens. They are being fattened up. In 30 days, their organs go to the OTS boutiques.

THE DECEPTIVE SAFETY RULE: Highlight the absolute absence of railings, life vests, or maritime safety gear, preserving the unnatural illusion of a landlocked resort.

NotebookLM

Execution: Desperate to escape their 30-day expiration, they trigger the Alpha Sigma code.

Mechanical Fallout:

- Nuclear reactors flatline. 50-foot armored walls lock permanently upright in Night Mode.

- 0% Buoyancy: The artificial islands lose their center of gravity.

- The trap of 'Deceptive Safety': Because they wanted seamless beaches, there are absolutely no railings and no life vests to hold onto as the deck tilts.

THE END OF THE ELITE: TOTAL SUBMERGENCE OF THE SOVEREIGN FLEET IN ABSOLUTE SILENCE

THE PRICE OF COMFORT: THE ELITE PERISH IN WINDOWLESS STEEL COFFINS;
THE ARCHITECT OF THEIR DOOM REMAINS IN PREHISTORIC CHAINS.

THE ANCESTRAL REVENGE IS COMPLETE.
